

New in Germany

This is how I start, from the airport to my pride From University, dorm to every side Pretty smile with a hand wave saying hi

Vielen Dank

Thank you for you precious time, oh not in English, so Danke, is the perfect Prime

The nostalgia of the travel, relaxation and aroma of the blend are the component of the “coffee” word because of the hoping from country to another this magic bean wrote its name by the smile of old times travelers who memorize the reading of lips, until become a word defines itself through time.

Kaffee

das Rauchen

a mouth full of coffee and no place to smoke holding my breath and running outside half naked and half resisting the cold taking the last breath out and light a cigarette to just make the meeting on the spot.

*The every morning relief,
Not money,
Not luxury perceive
But plenty of bloating food to leave.*

Kacken

Surrounding signs, don't touch, no hand shake simple wave from behind Little of soap, rub, scrub, bubbles and wash hence no corona left on hand

Hygiene

Schreiben

*In my small room, I might don't have a paper and a pen, But a 4 walls and imagination, every sound is written in a corner every moment is memory.
My diaries doesn't fear heights on sealing written, where every story just meet.*

Das Kibbeln.

*I don't have many skills, neither physical nor hide In between, waving on a chair balancing my movement with a powerful mind
This is how I work on my desk, this is how I slide!!*

Entspannung

Everything around is hidden with a white blanket, Snow holding the inner green, so relaxing need a book, kafee and a cigarette packet.

Tanz

*The music turn off the time machine Darkness breaks the purity of lights Moving and moving like the spirit search for the light, leaving the floor to the rhymes, to the harmony ,
to the happiness that oompah music add.*

*The sound of 4 wheels around the wavy support make skating easy but the elastic movement of skater, is a drawing that move from within frames.
Flying in the sky like nothing to ask why,
Freedom of time, place and even above the surrounding of skaters eyes.*

Schweben

die Musik

Vacation full of colors, odor of joy and sound of Christmas harmony and acoustic

The energy in the body turned up like the volume of the music

Four characters different names and still winning like the ace of hearts.*
